Complaints and Appeals

Training One Australia Pty Ltd has a policy and process to allow learners to challenge assessment decisions and should inform learners of the grounds for appeal.

Before lodging an appeal, you are encouraged to discuss your results with your lecturer.

The appeal shall contain

1. Details of the grounds upon which the complaint/s and/or appeal/s are being made.
2. Any supporting evidence.
3. Any other witness

All complaints/appeals must be lodged in writing with the CEO of Training One Australia no later than 7 days from the official notification of results.

Recognition of Prior Learning/Recognition of Current Competency

Learners who have completed appropriate training or who through prior learning and experience have the required skill/competency stipulated in this module, may be granted credit upon practical substantiation of that claim (e.g. credited training under a different unit code).

RCC recognises what you have already learnt from other courses, other life experiences, from work experience and from any training provided at work and measures it against the course or module you are doing or want to do.

If what you have learnt at work or elsewhere is relevant to the course you may not have to do those parts of the course again.

It is important to apply for RCC if you think you have already gained some experience that might be relevant to your course.

Specific Instructions

Bring proof of identity and age – (Driver's Licence)

Students must wear protective gear to participate in courses. PPE is provided with exception of Safety boots.

USI is required prior to any certificates being issued. Training One Australia can help you apply for your USI on the day.

Mutual Recognition

Where a student seeks advance standing on the basis of a qualification received from another registered Training Organisation, Training One Australia will recognise that qualification under the principles of Mutual Recognition.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy

Training One Australia recognises individual needs of students in relationship to language, literacy and numeracy skills and cultural differences in the learning and assessment program.

If you feel that you may need further assistance please ask your lecturer prior to attendance or workshop or assessment.

They can be contacted through Training One Australia for a confidential discussion.
